NARRATIVE:

Perez has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 23. His convictions include battery on a spouse, car jacking, assault with a deadly weapon causing great bodily injury, attempted car jacking, use/under the influence of controlled substances, violation of parole, forgery, possession of narcotic controlled substances, multiple disturbing the peace convictions, disobeying a court order, battery, contempt of court, and failure to appear. He has served multiple state prison terms the longest a 40 month term for attempted car jacking. Perez was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on April 18 2013. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in April 2014 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Perez qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for the charge of possession of a narcotic controlled substance is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His prior criminal history, gang member status and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
